67-11-11-01. Credentials required. For purposes of school accreditation, a school that educates a gifted and talented student must employ teachers who hold the North Dakota special education professional credential in gifted and talented education as outlined in this chapter or who have been authorized by the education standards and practices board in this speciality at a level the department determines meets or exceeds the requirements of this chapter and is consistent with the North Dakota teacher education program approval standards 2000 with 2002 revisions adopted by the education standards and practices board on August 1, 2002.

History: Effective February 1, 2000; amended effective July 1, 2003.

General Authority: NDCC 15.1-02-11, 15.1-32-02, 15.1-32-09

Law Implemented: NDCC 15.1-02-11, 15.1-32-02, 15.1-32-09

67-11-11-02. Issuing agency. The North Dakota special education teaching credential in gifted and talented issuing agency address is:

Superintendent of Public Instruction
Department of Public Instruction
600 East Boulevard Avenue, Dept. 201
Bismarck, ND 58505-0440

History: Effective February 1, 2000.

General Authority: NDCC 15.1-02-11, 15.1-32-02, 15.1-32-09

Law Implemented: NDCC 15.1-02-11, 15.1-32-02, 15.1-32-09

67-11-11-03. Credential standards. Each applicant for a gifted and talented teacher credential must meet the standards in this section. The documentation on each standard must be verified by the department before any special education credential is issued.

1. The standards prior to August 1, 2003, are as follows:
 - a. An applicant must hold a valid North Dakota educator's professional license issued by the education standards and practices board in accordance with North Dakota Century Code sections 15.1-13-10, 15.1-13-11, and 15.1-13-23 and North Dakota Administrative Code title 67.1, based on a bachelor's degree with a certifiable major or minor or an endorsement in elementary or secondary education.

- b. Areas of preparation of teachers of gifted and talented students include the coursework listed in this subdivision. The coursework must be taken at graduate level from a college or university with accreditation in this area and offering a major in special education that includes study in the areas listed in this subdivision. Because not all of these are course titles, applicants must have their transcripts and course content evaluated by the department of public instruction staff. All candidates who are to be employed as teachers of gifted and talented students must hold either a general elementary or secondary educator's professional license. The credential requires at least three semester hours of graduate credit in each of these areas:
 - (1) Education of gifted students.
 - (2) Gifted education curriculum.
 - (3) Student teaching in gifted education.
- c. One year of successful teaching experience is required in general education with verification from the employing school district.

2. After July 31, 2003, an applicant must:

- a. Hold a valid North Dakota educator's professional license issued by the education standards and practices board in accordance with North Dakota Century Code sections 15.1-13-10, 15.1-13-11, and 15.1-13-23 and North Dakota Administrative Code title 67.1, based on a bachelor's degree with a licensable major or minor or an endorsement in elementary or secondary education; and
- b. Meet education standards and practices board specialty area standards for teachers of gifted and talented students as set out in North Dakota teacher education program approval standards 2000 with 2002 revisions adopted effective August 1, 2002.

History: Effective February 1, 2000; amended effective July 1, 2003.

General Authority: NDCC 15.1-02-11, 15.1-32-02, 15.1-32-09

Law Implemented: NDCC 15.1-02-11, 15.1-32-02, 15.1-32-09

67-11-11-04. Types of credentials.

- 1. The professional credential is issued and is valid for the same period as the educator's professional license.
- 2. The provisional letter of approval is:

- a. Issued and is valid for one school year, including the following summer.
- b. Based on documentation of general education teaching experiences, a current teaching license, and a program of study at a college or university with an accredited training program.
- c. Based on the school district's description of the need for a provisionally credentialed staff member.

History: Effective February 1, 2000; amended effective July 1, 2002; July 1, 2003.

General Authority: NDCC 15.1-02-11, 15.1-32-02, 15.1-32-09

Law Implemented: NDCC 15.1-02-11, 15.1-32-02, 15.1-32-09

67-11-11-05. Application process. The application process to obtain a credential under this chapter is:

1. A special education credential application form provided by the department of public instruction must be submitted for the gifted and talented credential. Information including the date and the applicant's name, social security number, address, telephone number, educator's professional license number and expiration date, signature, and academic preparation are required in the application.
2. A copy of official transcripts must be provided.

History: Effective February 1, 2000; amended effective July 1, 2003.

General Authority: NDCC 15.1-02-11, 15.1-32-02, 15.1-32-09

Law Implemented: NDCC 15.1-02-11, 15.1-32-02, 15.1-32-09

67-11-11-06. Renewal requirements. To renew the gifted and talented credential, the teacher shall:

1. Complete the requirements established by the North Dakota education standards and practices board relative to renewal of the North Dakota educator's professional license. The special education credential follows the expiration date established by the education standards and practices board. No further action is required on the part of the teacher to renew a special education credential that is renewed on a continuing basis.
2. In those instances in which a lapse of the applicant's educator's professional license of more than ten years has occurred prior to renewal, the special education credential application will be reviewed to assure that all special education requirements have been met.

History: Effective February 1, 2000; amended effective July 1, 2003.
